What is Healthy Families of Clackamas County?

Healthy Families of Clackamas County (HFCC) is a home visiting program that supports the growth of healthy children and families, positive parenting, and school readiness.

What Do We Do?

The Community advisory committee serves an important function for the Healthy Families Program of Clackamas County. Committee members work to support the Healthy Families program through advising, providing input, planning, and continued quality improvement efforts.

Committee Expectations:

- Commitment to meet 5 times a year
- Meetings currently held virtually
- Could meet more often for specific projects

Who Are We Looking For?

Individuals who live or work in Clackamas County who are strong advocates for children and families in their community - including: business owners, early childhood professionals, current/former Healthy Families/ClackCoKids participants, and more!
